MEMORANDUM ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Bryant Crowder, 18 Cr. 885 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

I write with the consent of all parties to respectfully request that the Court cancel the February 26 supervised release violation hearing and schedule this matter for a conference on a date in April convenient for the Court. I make this request because I anticipate reaching a disposition that will obviate the need for a hearing.

After setting the hearing date at the initial appearance, I had the opportunity to consult with Mr. Crowder's state court attorney. She informs me that she expects his state court charges—for the same conduct underlying some of the federal violations—to resolve at Mr. Crowder's next state court appearance on March 31. I expect that a disposition of Mr. Crowder's federal violations will then follow. Accordingly, and after consulting with my client, I respectfully request that this matter be set for a conference sometime in April.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Jonathan Marvinny
